

Re: Requested Grant Information

Field of study: Social science, specifically human development within the areas of coaching and psychology

Program title: Become a Certified Coach program

Total tuition including all resources and applicable materials: $1647.00 USD

Computer access and internet charges are the responsibility of the student.

Program overview: At the end of the program the student will comprehend and be able to successfully demonstrate the following:

- How successful life change works
- How to increase self esteem
- How to work with people of all different means and assist them in becoming productive members of society
- How to work with individuals and organizations to promote, motivate and oversee positive and beneficial changes
- How to successfully strategize solutions with an individual or on a corporate level within a company or community

If you have any questions about this program feel free to contact me directly at 1-866-726-0248 or director@coachtrainingacademy.com. I would be more than happy to speak with you.

Sincerely,

Mackenzie Pearce

Mackenzie Pearce

Director, Coaching Academy of North America Inc.